THE SMALL STUFF

Create in me a clean heart, O God, and put a new and right spirit within me. — Psalm 51:10

My aunt had to move because of declining health. The realtor who came by saw what I had not seen; small carpet stains, a leaking faucet, mold around a bathtub, a loose handle on a cabinet, & chipped paint on facings. "Those things seem small," she said, "but they make a huge difference in whether the house sells or doesn't. Please get them fixed so we can list it.

As I dealt with getting repairs done, God led me to begin thinking about the "small things" in my life — the bit of gossip I repeat, the minor resentments I hold on to, the way I sometimes shade the truth to my benefit, my pride & self-justification, judging the actions & worth of others. I wondered if these are actually sins.

Honestly, I knew the answer is yes. I had committed sins & dismissed them as mere human failings. But they were sins & were obscuring the grace of God in my life.

In forgiveness & love, God helped me to be more honest & to confess my sins. He enabled me to begin a process of spiritual growth.
