OCTOBER NEWS

New Members

We have had two new members this last month—Sandy LeCoque by statement and Aiden Palmero by letter. Be sure to give both Sandy and Aiden a warm Centennial welcome.

Book Study

We will be starting a new Book Study on the book "Inheritance" on October 3rd at 6:30 p.m. The cost of the book is $12—to be paid either in Sunday offering envelope marked for Book Study or in Church Office.

Staff Evaluations

It is that time again. The Personnel Committee has asked that during the month of October you submit helpful comments in order to help them evaluate the staff. You may submit your comments to the Personnel Committee. Please seal them in an envelope. ALL COMMENTS MUST BE SIGNED. You can give them to Laura Pitts or leave them in the Sunday School Office mail box for the Personnel Committee.

Trunk or Treat

It will soon be time for our annual Trunk or Treat Block Party to be held on Sunday, Oct. 28th at 6:00 p.m. on the Church Parking Lot. Be watching for a sign up sheet for volunteers to help with the set up and the party itself. Please sign up and be a part of this Mission Project for our community children.

CHOIR BEGINS WORK ON NEW CHRISTMAS MUSICAL

"A Song Was Born At Christmas"

You are invited to join Centennial's Sanctuary Choir as they begin rehearsal on a new Christmas Cantata. If you like to sing, you are welcome to join us. "A Song Was Born at Christmas", by Tom Fettke, is a brand new musical celebrating the birth of the Messiah. It includes a very good mix of old familiar traditional songs and some exciting new songs and arrangements. I think you will love it! Come on Wednesday evenings at 5:30 p.m. to be a part of this exciting opportunity to minister in music.

— David Penn

We will save a chair for you.
