Are You Salty Enough?

Matthew 5:13

We should be a good influence on our friends. We certainly do have an influence, for good or for bad. Friends can build you up or they can tear you down. Choose your friends wisely.

In the great Sermon on the Mount, our Lord gives us directions on how believers are to live their lives and He refers to us as "the salt of the earth". Jesus was saying, "Those who are My disciples should affect the world in a positive way by the way in which they live."

Like salt, Christians are of infinite value.

Salt was so important that it was sometimes used for money.

They act as a preservative.

The fundamental moral and ethical difference that Christ can make in how we live, is missing.

They can lose their usefulness.

Christians, like salt, must have contact to have an influence.

Whenever the church becomes a salt warehouse, it has missed out on the lesson that salt must make contact to have an affect.
