Views from Kalamo Village

“Village Checking” – reading through 6 epistles to check for clarity, comprehension and naturalness.

A meal together to celebrate the completion of the village check.

We went swimming in the Wawoi River once a week. (photo above)

One of the village “mamas” who has attended Kerttu’s literacy classes.

The sun sets in Kalamo village, marking our last stay there this field term. “Furlough” in the USA and Finland begins in late June. Still lots of work to do before then.

Adult Literacy Course – Feb/March 2012

Kerttu taught some basic literacy skills to a few Odoodee women. The women were eager to learn! We plan on continuing this course when we return to Kalamo village later this year. Thanks for upholding us in your prayers!
