Keith's Klef

WOW!! What a great time of worship we experienced Sunday morning. To see our youth minister, Tyler Barnes, baptize his fiancé Chotsie Albright was a touching moment, and then to view the baptism of Chuck Smith and his niece Morgan Booth was the icing on the cake. The large number of family members there for all three who were baptized made it even more special. The congregation's participation in "I Will Not Be Shaken" topped off a great time of worship. The pastor's message was so timely and addressed a difficult topic that we sometimes would like to avoid. If you were not there to hear it, please log in to the church website and listen. You'll be glad you did! The fervent and touching prayer of David Nix before the offering really spoke to my heart and summed up many of our feelings about the inspiration of the service. It was good to be in the house of the Lord Sunday. Don't miss out on what will happen this coming Sunday.
