

- I. The great unity of the NT church reveals the failure of the enemy to destroy it via external pressure – 4:32.
- II. From external pressures to internal unity: how the HS strengthens the church – 4:32-37.
 - A. When the times are hard, believers pull closer together – the church is single-minded – v. 32.
 - B. The power of mutual sharing / Earthly possessions are held in common – v. 32.
 - C. Power is present in preaching – v. 33.
 - D. Preaching is focused on biblical priorities – v. 33.
 - E. Great grace abounds on all – v. 33.
 - F. Believers take care of one another's needs – v. 34.
 - G. God's people are moved to selfless acts – vv. 34-37.
 - i. Showcasing a special servant – vv. 36-37.
 - a. His name - Joseph (Barnabas) – prominent figure in Acts
 - b. His background
 - c. His example – sacrificial giving.
- III. The intense unity of the early believers forms a backdrop for introducing that which can undo the church, namely internal sin – 5:1-11.
 - A. When God's people let Satan take control, consequences are severe – 5:1-10.
 - i. Showcasing a rebellious couple
 - a. Their names
 - b. Their sin
 - c. The progression of their sin
 1. It begins with a desire to get credit for sacrificial giving without giving sacrificially.
 2. The desire for glory caused a husband to forsake his biblical leadership responsibilities and instead lead his family into complicit deception.
 3. Deception within the church plants seeds of disunity and gives Satan a foothold in it.
 4. God does not tolerate deception.
 - B. God's swift judgment teaches the rest of the church a lesson in consequences – 5:5, 11.

The Big Idea: When individual believers give God the glory and credit for all that they are and do on His behalf, it will keep them from pride and deception and ensure the unity of the local church.