

Jan 1, 2006

Dear,

Enclosed you will find some information that we hope you will find helpful, as you prayerfully consider your marriage; both in general, and to one another.

We live in a society where it is far easier to get a marriage license than it is a drivers license, or vocational license. While marriage is no big deal to the world, it is a huge deal to the Lord, and nothing to be entered into lightly. Marriage is intended to be a life-long covenant relationship, between 1 man and 1 woman, and the Lord.

Before you go through with a marriage ceremony, we ask you to read over the enclosed materials, prayfully consider them, and evaluate yourself, evaluate one another, and evaluate your reasons for wanting to marry each other right now.

It is far better to postpone your wedding (and endure whatever heckling it may bring from family & friends), than to enter marriage with the correct person prematurely, or to marry the wrong life-long partner.

We are not in the match-making business, and as such we have no opinion about who you should or should not marry. We do, however, believe in following scriptural principles, and we do desire to see you live the most blessed lives possible.

We will be praying for you during this exciting and important decision-making time of your lives.

God Bless, and Congratulations !!

Dr. William A. Stack, Sis Sheri Stack, Pastors

