Commandment Five

Exodus 20:12

The fifth commandment is reflected in the principles of almost every culture in all places at all times. It is a universally recognized principle that children should honor and respect their parents.

Disobedience to parents will be one of the signs of the end times:
2 Timothy 3:1-2

- 1) You honor your parents by heeding their wise council. Proverbs 18:9
- 2) You honor your parents by living an honorable life. Proverbs 17:25
- 3) You honor your parents by loving them. John 19:26-27
- 4) You honor your parents by submitting to their authority. Ephesians 6:1
- 5) You honor your parents by accepting their discipline and instruction. Proverbs 1:8-9

Parents can help their children to observe the fifth commandment by:

- 1) Instructing them (your children) in God's ways. Deuteronomy 6:7
- 2) Disciplining your children. Proverbs 22:6
- 3) Providing for your children's needs. 2 Corinthians 12:14
- 4) Not exasperating your children. Ephesians 6:4

Reasons why you should honor your parents:

- 1) It is right. Ephesians 6:1
- 2) It pleases God. Colossians 3:20
- 3) It teaches respect for authority. Romans 13:1-2
- 4) It places you under God's protection. Proverbs 6:20-23
- 5) It brings peace and joy to your parents. Proverbs 27:11
- 6) It helps you grow in wisdom. Proverbs 4:1-4 (continued next column)

The ABC's of Salvation

(3 Step Process to Accepting Jesus as Savior)

A - Admit that I am a sinner (Romans 3:23, Romans 6:23).

B - Believe that Jesus is God's Son, that He died for me, and that His death can save my soul (John 3:16, Romans 5:8-10).

C - Confess that He is my Lord and Savior (Romans 10:9-13).

(Example of a prayer for you to follow)

Dear God, I understand that Jesus died on the cross for my sins, so I could be in relationship with You and go to heaven. I'm sorry for living a life without You at the center. Please forgive me for all my sins. I want to follow You for the rest of my life. In Jesus' Name, Amen.

Memorial Day commemorates the men and women who died while in the military service of their country, particularly those who died in battle or as a result of wounds sustained in battle. In other words, the purpose of Memorial Day is to memorialize the veterans who made the ultimate sacrifice for their country. We spend time remembering those who lost their lives and could not come home, reflecting on their service and why we have the luxury and freedom that we enjoy today.
