Bereavement Committee

A vital ministry and witness of our church is through the Bereavement Committee which serves a meal when a church member passes away. If you are not currently preparing a dish and wish to do so, please call the church office or Donna Anthony. Your name will be added to the list to prepare a dish.

As Information

The remaining 2013 contribution statements have been mailed. If you have any questions, please call the church office.

Thank You Note

The widows, widowers and single adult banquet with beautiful decorations accompanied by the delicious meal served by our deacons was truly appreciated. The varied musical selections by Debbie Hendon and David & Angie Wells uplifted our spirits and inspired our souls. Thank you to the deacons and their wives for honoring us in this special way!

Thank You Note

Dear Church Members,
Thank you so very much for the prayers, cards, and love shown to us during the passing of my father. My Dad loved his Lord and felt an instant kinship to other brothers and sisters in Christ. We are so grateful for each call and visit made. The love of my church was very apparent. Special thanks also to Robert and David for their loving attention to my family. We were indeed blessed and touched by each of you.
Gratefully,
Maxine & Jeff Craft

Christian Sympathy

Our deepest Christian sympathy is extended to Mr. & Mrs. Torance Inman & their family and other family members in the loss of Torance's cousin, *Mrs. Sylvia "Peepsy" Reynolds of Union, South Carolina who passed away Friday, March 21, 2014 at Spartanburg Regional Hospice Home.

Our deepest Christian sympathy is extended to Mrs. Frankie E. Ivey & her family and other family members in the loss of Frankie's father, *Mr. Horace Earls of Union, South Carolina who passed away Saturday, March 22, 2014 at his home.
