*THE JOURNEY OF LENT
THROUGH THE PSALMS*

Lent is a time of reflecting on the journey of faith, to remember that we must choose daily to follow the path that Jesus chose to take: the hard road that led to the hard wood of the cross. The Psalms have been a source of prayer and reflection for God's people for centuries. Their honesty encourages us to be open and honest with God, and reminds us that his faithfulness will continue to all generations.

FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT
PSALM 130

I wait for the Lord, my whole being waits,
and in his word I put my hope.
I wait for the Lord
more than watchmen wait for the morning,
more than watchmen wait for the morning.
Psalm 130:5-6

*We must hope for that only which God has promised in his word, and not for the creatures of our own fancy and imagination; we must hope for it because he has promised
it, and not from any opinion of our own merit.
We are well-assured that the morning will come;
and so am I that God will return in mercy to me,
according to his promise; for God's covenant is more firm than the ordinances of day and night, for they shall come to an end, but his covenant is everlasting and sure.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come,
Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;

ANTHEM

"I Will Believe"

Chancel Choir

*In a time of deep despair, some have lost their way,
Searching for a hope that lasts just for one more day.
I will hold for a lifetime to a hand I cannot see,
To the one who promised life eternally.*

Refrain:

*I will believe in a saving grace, in a God who first loved me.
I will believe in that holy place where my spirit longs to be.
In a God who dies for me, I will believe.*

*Broken dreams and shattered lives, a world that's lost in fear,
Struggles come and faith is lost in all that we hold dear.*

*But I will trust in a Savior who would give his life for me,
Who would pay the price for my eternity*

*He gives me each breath of life, each day a faith that's strong.
In his righteousness I carry on, carry on!*
