

The Chosen

Episode 6: Indescribable Compassion

What about Episode 6 caught your attention, confused or encouraged you?

What themes or ideas did you pick up as you watched this episode?

The story of the paralytic comes from Mark 2:1-12. Talk about...

- Who helped them get on the roof
- When Jesus saw their faith (2:5)
- Who Jesus is quoting to the Pharisees
- Which is easier: to heal the paralytic or to forgive him?

Mary: Simon, he deserves to hear Jesus as much as any of the others.

Female Friend: Jesus of Nazareth! If you are willing, I know you can do this!

Why do you think women are represented as having more faith than men?

Peter says to Matthew: Get out your tablet at least. What is the significance of this line?

Why doesn't Jesus directly answer the Pharisees questions?

Have you ever felt like the paralytic man either before or after he was healed?

Have you ever felt like his friends either before or after he was healed?

Which stories would you like / do you hope to see in the last two episodes?

How is God speaking to you through The Chosen series so far?

FOR THE FAMILY:

Activities to help families connect with and reflect on The Chosen together.

Make a Connection:

- Tell a story about the sickest you've been. How long did it take to get better? Wouldn't it have been great to get healed instantly?!?
- Look at pictures of ancient homes. Talk about how you would get through the roof.

Talk About It:

- Why did Jesus say the man was forgiven first before He healed him?

Jesus was in a
