This month marks the 10th anniversary of Marvin Mora's ministry as “Keeper of the House,” the ministry of custodial services. Here’s a photo of Marvin at work. He’s cleaning the backboards’ glass as if we were the Alamodome hosting the NCAA Men’s basketball championship! Marvin’s service will be recognized in the April 8th service and at a special Coffee Fellowship sponsored by the Fun$Raising Team.

Now, the stained-glass windows. Willet-Hauser Studio in March removed (top photo) 11 windows and installed (bottom photo) 10 new frames. The existing frame of “Jesus Blessing the Children” window will be reused. With the frames came the new coverings that will protect the stained-glass when they are repaired. Willet-Hauser took photographs of each window and made transparencies and installed them. Each window looks pretty much as if nothing was removed.

The Dream Lives On

April 4, 1968. The Nobel Peace Prize awardee, the Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., was murdered. Famously remembered for his “I Have A Dream Speech (sermon),” the dreamer is numbered among the saints triumphant, but his dream lives on.

Life this Sin-fractured side of eternity will never fully realize his dream or the will of our Heavenly Father. Still, we strive to make God’s justice known. As Saint Paul writes in Galatians 3:26, “There is neither Jew nor Gentile, neither slave nor free, nor is there male and female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus.”
Tommy Is At It Again!

Just in time for Easter, we have the second resurrection of our Conference Room! And right behind it to be completed will be the Nursery.

Designed to blend with the green accents on the entire lower Church building, Tom is here showing off the new digs. Just like the proud grandfather he is, the church building is his favorite! No worries - while Tom is standing there with workers Anthony and “Tombstone,” he’s only overseeing the job, not completing it! The work is by JM Construction of Port, Joe Melli, owner. Make sure you say thanks to Tom when you see him this Sunday!

Paper Pantry News by Clare Masi

A big “thank you” to the Boy Scout Troop Seven. They ran an orange bag food drive on Saturday March 24th at Stop and Shop. Under the direction of Vicki Di Agguanno, the boys collected and sorted over 100 bags of food for the pantries. They purchased hand soap, toothpaste and pull-ups for Our Savior’s personal care pantry.
Bagels, Bibles and Babes Women’s Group

On Saturday, March 24th we met at Vicky Gordon’s home to view the final video of the "1000 Gifts" series. Author Ann Voskamp beautifully expresses how to find joy thru gratitude in life knowing we are wildly loved by God, while we face many trials and challenges. Upcoming events include going to the Salt Cave in Port with meditation by Shaleen Shivdasani, Saturday, April 28th (alternate date May 5th) and on May 26th discussion of the book "the Seat of the Soul" by Gary Zukav.

Last year a group went to St Josephat’s Retreat House in Lattingtown. This year’s retreat is scheduled for the weekend of April 28th. If you would like to attend, please contact Linda Urich at cell 516 459-2090 or email LinnyU2000@aol.com.

Spiritual Growth Committee by Chris Burwell

A group of ten saw the movie "Paul, Apostle of Christ" on Sunday. The Movie is at Loew’s Raceway theater in Westbury until March 29th.

Caregivers’ Support Group led by Susan Bagnini, Social Worker will be meeting on Tuesday, April 24th, in the church at 7:30 pm. Perhaps you noticed on Sunday a greeter welcoming you as you entered the sanctuary for service. If you would like to be a greeter, kindly contact Leslie Kinney at 883-3112.

LuHi Crusader Fund Grant

In 2017, the Crusader Fund, established anonymously with a $1 million gift, awarded a grant of $1500 as seed money for the Laundry Love program in Port.

This year we will receive on Friday, April 20th a grant of $1,600 for the Paper & Personal Care Pantry.

Senior students review each of the grant applications and make a presentation with a funding recommendation to a committee. The student presenting our proposal actually recommended we receive twice the amount requested. But final approval was given to the original requested amount.

The grant will be made during Chapel worship on April 20th.

LI Lutheran Middle & High School welcomes students in grades 5-12 to its Brookville campus.

If interested in enrollment, call 676-1700 and ask for Admissions.
On the Council by Martha Schweitzer

Your Council Members have been faithfully working to support the ministry of our church. Updating our website has had my attention. To be truthful, all I have done is observe the process and to give my two cents opinion while Marianne Reardon, our parish administrator, and Tracy Lynch, our website consultant, have done all the work. The format is new. We can now post videos – there is one of our Choir performing at Hempstead House in early March. When you visit our website – lutheranchurchportwashington.com – you will see that our gorgeous stained-glass windows play a role. The updating is a work in progress, and we welcome your ideas and suggestions for improvement. Please also send Marianne (LCOSoffice@optimum.net) your photos of church events! We want a website that reflects the life of our church.

We used our stained-glass windows as a theme on the website because we thought we would be missing them while they are being refurbished. I was ready to face the loss when I came to worship. Much to my surprise and delight, the company repairing the windows had placed transparencies that replicate our windows on the clear glass windows we had seen previously. Our beautiful sanctuary has hardly changed!

Our Semi-Annual Meeting is scheduled for Sunday, May 6th after morning worship. Please try to attend and give us your feedback.

Fun$ Raising Committee News BY Murphy & Rice

Thanks to everyone who joined in the fun, food and fellowship at Mojito Cafe and Lounge on Monday, March 12th. Sorry, but there are no pictures to share – too many margaritas, mojitos and cervezas!

The committee is busy preparing for a special Coffee Hour after Worship on Sunday, April 8th to celebrate the 10th anniversary of Marvin Mora’s service at the LCOS. Let us join together as a Church Family to thank the Lord for blessing us with Marvin, our Christian brother, and for all of his good works.

“Give thanks always and for everything to God the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.” Ephesians 5:20.

A “Musical” Note from Federico Teti

Dear Friends,

Happy Easter!

I was glad to see many of you at the Winter Choral Concert on March 4 supporting Our Choir who sang beautifully and had a great success with the people in the audience. I was happy to hear the results of weeks of hard work in a performance full of life and passion. Bravissimi!

Easter is here and we are preparing some special music to celebrate the Resurrection of Our Lord Jesus Christ. Our fabulous trumpet player, Susan Lopez, will join us in the celebration with two joyous pieces by Bach and Mouret. Our young and promising flutist, Ava Leitner, will play a beautiful selection by Gabriel Fauré and Our Choir with sing with their hearts and souls two lively anthems, including our traditional “Hallelujah” from Händel's Messiah. Thank you all for making our Easter more beautiful!

On the day after Easter, April 2nd, I will travel to Japan to play in a concert in Toyota City on April 6th. I have been to Japan to perform four times already, the last one in July 2011 to play the organ in a benefit concert for the victims of the big earthquake, tsunami and Fukushima nuclear accident of March 11th, 2011. That time I was shocked to arrive in Tokyo and finding the airport almost empty. During the concert, which was at the Toyota City Concert Hall, which has a very fine four manuals pipe organ by the American organ-builder John Brombaugh, I was interviewed on stage and one of the questions was why I came to Japan at that time when many people canceled their trips because of their fear of radiations and aftershocks. I responded that I had been in Japan during good times and I have always been treated wonderfully by the Japanese people, (they laughed when I said that I always feel like a rock-star in Japan), and I felt it was right to show them support during difficult times as well. I think they appreciated that. This time I will play the piano at the concert. I will perform, among other pieces, the Sonata in G Major K.146 by Domenico Scarlatti and the Ballade No. 1 in G Minor by Frédéric Chopin, which are some of my favorite pieces of music. I will be back to New York on April 10th and I hope I will have some nice stories of my trip to share with you.

Sincerely,
Federico Teti
Tuesday evening of Holy Week was a special night for our Kids’ Klub children, their families, and friends as they followed Jesus through five experiences leading up to Easter. Our hope is that it helped everyone connect with our Lord’s love and divine sacrifice for each of us and that it built faith and strength through praise and prayer, trust and thankfulness.

The families began at Jesus’ Parade, creating palm branches with Tina Fairhurst and having a celebration waving them at Jesus’ arrival in Jerusalem. Next they went to Jesus’ Party, or the Last Supper with Victoria Gordon, complete with matzoh, grape juice, and foot washing. Here they learned that people in God’s family help each other. From there they proceeded to Jesus Prays, a starry lit Garden of Gethsemane at night with Linda Urick, where they learned how praying to God helps us, and that it is easier than talking on the phone. Then the families travelled to Jesus’ Power, visiting the cross with Leslie Kinney, where everyone discovered how Jesus defeated death, and in so doing gave us the gift of forgiveness of all our sins so we can always be close to God. At Jesus’ Present, Denise DePalma helped the children explore how Jesus wipes away our sins and makes them disappear with a wonderful hands-on demonstration example for them to participate in, that brought it all home.

Upstairs in the church, the families ended their evening with peaceful beautiful meditation lovingly led by Shaleen Makhijani-Shivdasani. Refreshments were generously provided by Irene Wood. All families went home with a devotional booklet, Family Time Together, and a Jesus Lives coloring gift bag with an Easter egg that contained a surprise, not to be opened until Easter morning!

We thank Pastor Charley for bringing this event to our attention, to Elaine Ajello and Barbara Ferro for making it happen, to Elaine for directing it so that all the pieces would fall neatly into place, to Randy Fairhurst for taking photographs at the event for this newsletter, to all our devoted and enthusiastic station captains for all their preparations and meetings and kindness to the children, and last but certainly not least, to David Leitner, who was our Jesus that evening and did such an outstanding job! Also we thank Jerry Urick for all his assistance that evening to any and all who needed it, and especially for making sure that I did not fall off my step ladder! Parents, we appreciate your support 100% and thank you for bringing your children!

Happy Easter and love to all!

Within the Family

A 7 decades member, Norm Terjesen, died in Christ on March 1st at Stony Brook Hospital. His funeral service was held at the church on March 7th followed by a committal service at the National Cemetery in Calverton. For the last 3 years Norm lived in an adult home in Holbrook. Thank you for all from the church family and the PWFD who attended the services at his wake, funeral and burial. “None of us lives to himself and none of us dies to himself. If we live, we live to the Lord. If we die, we die to the Lord. So, then whether we live or whether we die we are the Lord’s!”

Lynne Solem, sister of sainted Ernie Meyer, sent a $5,000 memorial gift to the church family shortly before Easter to be used in whatever way we feel honors Ernie and is helpful to the Church. Maybe we should start a bowling league in Ernie’s memory! Praise God, from Whom all blessings flow!

Congratulations with manifold blessings to Lauri Fico and Gordon Bares who’ll enter into the covenant of Christian marriage on April 14th.

Current member Renée Wicklund is nominated for the office of Synod Vice President (equivalent of Council President) in the upcoming elections at the Metropolitan NY Synod Assembly in May. Renée and Pr. Kimberli Lile will be delegates. If elected, Renée will chair the Synod Council and work closely with interim bishop, Bp. Donald McCoid, and the Synod staff. The Assembly will be held this year at Melville Marriott.

Great article in the Port Washington Patch on Troop 7’s “Orange Bag Food Drive” in March. Thank you to all who support these collections for the pantries at St. Peter’s & Our Lady of Fatima’s churches. Troop 7 is based at the United Methodist Church; BSA Troop 241 is chartered by Our Savior’s…455 pounds of non-perishable foods collected during March’s “Grocery Bag” month for the New Life Center in Uniondale, a ministry of Lutheran Social Services NY, were delivered on Holy Monday. We also delivered baby supplies and clothing…

It all started with such promise—the angel announcing to Mary that the child she would bear would be called Son of the Most High. The conviction of Mary that this child would be the embodiment of God’s promised justice, that the hungry would be filled with good things and the rich sent away empty; angels announcing his birth, thousands being fed; the sick healed; the dead raised.

And then, “My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?” It was over. The world hadn’t changed. Might still made right. How ridiculously naive to believe that any reversal of the old order could come about. Hope is for the gullible. Looking at this broken man hanging utterly helpless, naked and broken on a cross, the powers and principalities, earthly and spiritual, death and the devil must have said, “You fool.”

This, as St. Paul reminds us, is the wisdom of the world. And the world can present plenty of hard evidence that it is right children killing children in horrible school shootings, 60 million displaced people—all of this supported by our legislators against our, our children claim that we are in control and the world is ours. In the face of this and all of the suffering others cause and we cause others, we, too, might cry out, “My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?”

I believe that the beginning of Psalm 23 expresses the anguish of the psalmist and the anguish of our Lord, but there is more going on here. Citing the first words of a text was, in the tradition of the time, a way of identifying an entire passage. The psalm ends this way: “All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn to the Lord; and all the families of the nations shall worship him. Praise be to the Lord forever! Amen.” Future generations will be told about the Lord, and proclaim his deliverance to a people yet unborn, saying that he has done it. This is the wisdom of God. Jesus’ crucifixion is the death of our death. His innocent suffering has reconciled all of creation to God. He has done it. We stake our lives on this.

This year, Easter falls on April 1. We shall have come through the Lenten desert to the Easter Garden. We shall say, “Christ is risen. He is risen indeed. Alleluia.” And we shall confess this and live this in the face of worldly wisdom that is based on death. Life wins. Love wins. And if the world wants to call us fools, we are glad to claim that title.
