Time for J.O.Y.

J.O.Y. = Jesus + Others + Yourself

April 25-27, 2014

Camp Mitchell
Petit Jean Mountain

Quite often we let ourselves get too attached to what our ego wants out of our life, what we think we need to be successful. It's time to let go, find that still small voice that knows what we truly need, and greet the women we're meant to be.

Camp
Mitchell,
Petit Jean

The veil is thin between our busy lives and the breath of the Spirit atop the mountain.

Women Age 20ish—40ish

- * You are an Episcopal Woman!
- * We need you to feel supported, loved and spirit-filled.
- * You deserve a weekend to renew the spirit within.

Experience letting go and letting God move through you.

Gracious God, prepare the hearts of the young women of our diocese so they may yearn for a retreat which gives them time to relax and be nurtured along a spiritual path, drawing them closer to you and your love. Gently speak their names so they might hear your call. Through Jesus Christ Our Lord and Savior. Amen.

For the more experienced women and for those who have already experienced JOY....

Sponsor

Find the young women in your midst who need to experience J.O.Y. in their lives, assure them all will be well, get them registered and support them on their spiritual journey.

Give

The gift of radical hospitality requires both tangible and financial. Donations may be sent directly to ECW Treasurer:
