Q5: Other thoughts and ideas about the church picnic:

I go to the picnic most years but to be honest I don't find that being in the Rochester park in the picnic area detracts from the spirituality of the service for me. Van Hoosen farm sounds awesome - the surroundings would be so beautiful to look at while we have the service. I know that being in a park is supposed to help us be more visible in the community - I'm not sure how much it has helped in the past. If we have an outdoor service maybe we should think about getting some sort of eye catching banner that we could put up in the area so people could see who we are. The parking lot would be great also - it would draw attention and people passing by would see the activity - we could post a signs a week ahead of time in the front and on the side of the church that said we were having an outdoor service next week on our grounds and it's open to the public - come join us! or something like that.

Q6: I would be willing to work on the picnic planning committee.

Combine with another church (Episcopal or ELCA)

Instead of a picnic (only family event we have): 1. Go to Jimmy John's field for a baseball game. 2. Hot dogs or such in the parking lot--invite the neighbors. 3. Have a bike ride or walk from church to city park, bring a backpack lunch and eat on lawn in city park.
