

The Journey to the Cross

*Leads to Resurrection
and New Life*

As we approach Holy week, it is especially appropriate that Bishop Beisner has designated the Fifth Sunday of Lent for the annual Episcopal Community Services (ECS) annual appeal.

In the gospel reading for today we hear Jesus rebuking Judas Iscariot and saying, " You always have the poor with you, but you do not always have me."

ECS has supported the work of responding to Jesus' admonition by helping congregations minister to the poor, the sick, the homeless, and the hungry in their communities. You are invited to help us continue this work by supporting our annual appeal.
