SCRIPTURE READINGS FOR DEC. 2, 2018

- First Reading: Jeremiah 33:14-16
- Second Reading: 1 Thessalonians 3:9-13
- Gospel: Luke 21:25-36
- Psalm: 25:1-9

*Almighty God, giver of every good gift, look graciously upon your church and so guide the minds of those who shall choose a bishop for this diocese, and those who offer themselves as candidates, that we may receive a faithful pastor who will care for your people and equip us for our ministries, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Most Holy God, We hold our hands and hearts up to you for our families and friends, our homes and our land, our neighbors and those we do not yet know in this time of need. All are gifts from you and we grieve our loss, fear the days ahead, and long for relief. Now is a time of danger and suffering and so we beg deliverance from the heat and the fires that damage and kill. Bless now, especially, those who fight these flames in our midst. Keep them safe and strong in the protection of our community. Bless, too, the generous persons who make room for the displaced in their homes. Shelter those who are bereft of their homes; give solace to those who have lost so much. Enlighten us with your holy grace and suffer us not to be separated from You, the Creator and Lover of all. We ask all this in Christ's name. Amen.

*O God, you made us in your own image and redeemed us through Jesus your Son: Look with compassion on the whole human family; take away the arrogance and hatred which infect our hearts; break down the walls that separate us; unite us in bonds of love; and work through our struggle and confusion to accomplish your purposes on earth; that, in your good time, all nations and races may serve you in harmony around your heavenly throne; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
