Thy kingdom come,

thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And lead us not into temptation,

but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power,
and the glory, forever. Amen.

The one essential thing — When Jesus saw Martha distracted and worked up over details at the dinner she and her sister Mary had invited him to, he said to her, "One thing only is essential" (Luke 10:38-42). What happened to Martha can happen to anyone, even to a whole congregation. Smaller, routine details can be so demanding of attention, we can lose sight of the most important reason why we are here and fritter away our best energy and resources. What is that one essential thing for us? Frederick Buechner thinks that place, the place to which God calls us, is where our deep gladness and the world's deep hunger meet. It's the place where our best gifts and our neighbors' greatest needs intersect. In our fourth Interim Process Event next Sunday, Dec.

11, we will focus on where that place is and what it suggests about why we are here and what we ought to be doing as a congregation. Join us following worship from noon to about 1:45. We will celebrate a fresh sense of ourselves, our gifts, and our calling and look ahead to how God may be leading us into new directions in ministry. A light lunch will be provided.

Please keep the following people in your prayers during the coming week: Gordon & April Smith, Megan; Steve Smith; Dave & Sally Smith; Bummer & Brenda Snyder, Patti.

There are order forms for Christmas poinsettias on the table at the bottom of the stairs in the Fellowship Hall & in the back of the sanctuary. (So we can have all orders processed in time, please return them to Melissa Taber by tomorrow, Dec. 5.) Thank you.

Today is the deadline for collecting mittens, hats, and scarves for the Mitten Tree Project to be shared with the Utica Neighborhood Center.

A Free Holiday Concert! Next Sunday, Dec. 11, 3:00-5:00 p.m. at the First Presbyterian Church of Wolcott. An afternoon with Jeff Sawyer and guest soloists, including Kelley Loveless.

There will be a Bake Sale on next Sunday, December 11, following the worship service, in the Fellowship Hall. This is an excellent opportunity to purchase some special holiday treats! We're looking for lots of people to donate items for the Bake Sale and lots of shoppers, too! Proceeds from the Bake Sale will help with cost of Vacation Bible School. Thanks for your support! For more information contact Cindy Conboy, faithwaltz@yahoo.com.

Our annual Angel Tree Project has started. Gift tags and a sign-up poster are in the back of the sanctuary to sign up for food items to be included in our giving. Very Important!!! All food items and gifts (wrapped with the gift tag attached on top) must be returned to church no later than Friday, December 16, for sorting and distributing. Please call Lori Peck with any questions. (587-9766 or llpeck3@hotmail.com).

Heating Season- now that the days & nights are growing colder, we need your help to save on fuel costs. If you are in charge of an activity at the church, please make sure all interior doors & windows are closed when you leave, and that there is nothing blocking the heat registers. Also, it helps if you check to make sure all lights are off and there is no water left running.

Here's an idea to save a little time (and money): deliver your Christmas cards to church friends using their mail folders. We have mail folders located in the fellowship hall by the choir room for each person who is a church officer. Please be sure you check your folder if you have one—you don't want to miss out on Christmas greetings!

The Christmas Poinsettias on the altar today are in loving memory of Robert S. & Nina Johnson, Mr. & Mrs. Harry Sidler, and Howard & Mildred Sidler, by Susan Darling.

If your family is not represented on our sanctuary Christmas tree, we invite you to add an ornament from your house to the tree anytime during the Christmas season. Simply fill out a tag from the basket below, with the year and your family name & members. Then, attach the tag to your ornament and hang it on the tree. Ornaments, saved from year to year, fill our sanctuary trees with the love of our past church families as well as those of the present.

We have a prayer box on the small table in the back of the sanctuary. Everyone is welcome to write prayer needs on a slip of paper and place them in the box. This prayer box is laid on the altar each Sunday. Pastor Rich takes the prayer requests home and continues to pray for these needs during the coming week. However, if you wish to keep your request known to God alone, just write “private” on the front, and Pastor Rich will not read it.

We have printed up copies of the praise music, which include the musical notes. If you would enjoy a copy, please pick it up on the Upper Room table in the back of the sanctuary.

For pastoral emergencies, contact Interim Pastor Rich Neal by cell phone, 716-984-3541, or by email at richneal@together.net.

NURSERY care is available for babies, toddlers & pre-schoolers. It is located downstairs (east end of the building). Bathrooms are located downstairs across from the kitchen.

We have lots of great Christmas books and videos—for young children, elementary aged kids, teens, and adults! Check out our church library, downstairs in the Fellowship Hall. All books may be borrowed for two weeks by signing them out on the clipboard.

The Carillon will play in memory of Iva Covey on December 9.
