Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come,
thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,

And lead us not into temptation,

We welcome those who love God and believe in Jesus Christ to join with us in receiving Holy Communion. We welcome people of all ages and religious denominations, since we believe that Christ lived and died for us all. We will receive Communion at the altar rail—feel free to kneel or stand. Please note that there is gluten-free bread available in the small foil cups. We invite you to eat the bread and drink the grape juice as they are handed to you. You are welcome to remain at the altar rail to pray as long as you wish. Please come to the front following the direction of the ushers and return by the side aisles. If you would prefer to be served in the pew, let one of the ushers know.

The carillon will play on Sept. 4 in memory of Virginia Farnsworth.

We heartily welcome all visitors here this morning and hope you will return to worship with us again. Please sign the guest book by the front door.

You are invited to remain after the service and enjoy conversation with one another. Coffee is available downstairs in the fellowship hall—grab a cup!

Please keep the following people in your prayers during the coming week: Tom Savage; Chris, Aiden Scherich; Rudy & Gloria Schweitz; Dawn, Evan, Kyler Schwind.

FAITH HOME: Each week we will be listing an activity that you can enjoy as a family to help us all grow in faith. Why not get out the old photo albums? This is a perfect time for parents (and grandparents) to show pictures and tell stories about going to school. Share some of the good times, but also the fears, embarrassments, and disappointments. Then, pray together about the coming school year.

There will be a Church Conference today at 11:00 a.m. following our worship service. (This is a "congregational meeting"; all members of the church are eligible to vote.) The sole purpose of this church conference will be to vote on this motion: that North Rose United Methodist Church receive the bequest of Gordon Wise in the amount of $25,000, and that these funds be designated for the bathroom/septic system renovation project up to the full amount of the funds received. The North Rose United Methodist Church Council is authorized to decide on the use of any funds remaining from this bequest, after the bathroom/septic system renovation project is paid for.

We will celebrate Christian Education Sunday next Sunday, September 8. This special offering is used within our Upper NY Conference to provide training for Sunday School teachers. (10% stays in our church to support the work of our Sunday School.)

Chancel Choir welcomes anyone who likes to sing and can practice on Thursday evenings & sing as part of Sunday morning worship (adults & high school). First rehearsal is this Thurs. Sept. 5 at 7:00 p.m. in the sanctuary. Questions? Please contact Lucy Smith at 483-8297.

With 75 years of Christian ministry to boys and their Dads, Brigade Boys will begin on Sun. Sept 15 at 4 pm in the Faith United Methodist Church. Registration will begin at 4 pm with a brief orientation to begin this non-denominational ministry. Please pass the word! For more information, please contact Bob Searle, r0027@aol.com. Thank you!
