Confession and Forgiveness

P: In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

P: Almighty God, to whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid: cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you and worthily magnify your holy name, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

C: Amen.

— Let us confess our sin in the presence of God and of one another. —

Most Merciful God,

C: we confess that we are captive to sin and cannot free ourselves. We have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. For the sake of your Son, Jesus Christ, have mercy on us. Forgive us, renew us, and lead us, so that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways, to the glory of your holy name. Amen.

P: In the mercy of almighty God, Jesus Christ was given to die for us and for his sake God forgives us all our sins. As a called and ordained minister of the church of Christ, and by his authority, I therefore declare to you the entire forgiveness of all your sins, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

Opening Song: Take My Life

Take my life and let it be consecrated, Lord, to Thee.
Take my hands and let them move
at the impulse of Thy love,
at the impulse of Thy love.

Take my feet and let them be swift and beautiful for Thee.
Take my voice and let me sing
always, only, for my King,
always, only, for my King.

Chorus:

Take my life (take my life)
Take my life (take my life)
Take my life I give it once again.

Take my lips and let them be filled with messages for Thee.
Take my silver and my gold.
Not a mite would I withhold.
Not a mite would I withhold.

<Chorus>

Take my heart (take my heart)
Take my heart (take my heart)
Take my heart I give it all to you.

Take my love, my God, I pour at Thy feet, its treasure store.
Take myself and I will be
ever, only, all for Thee,
ever, only, all for Thee.

Greeting

Opening Hymn: Gather Us In

Here in this place the new light is streaming, now is the darkness vanished away;
see in this space our fears and our dreamings brought here to you in the light of this day.
Gather us in, the lost and forsaken,
gather us in, the blind and the lame;
Call to us now, and we shall awaken,
we shall arise at the sound of our name.

Not in the dark of buildings confining,
not in some heaven, light years away
here in the place the new light is shining, now is the kingdom, and now is the day.
Gather us in and hold us forever,
gather us in and make us your own;
gather us in, all peoples together,
fire of love in our flesh and our bone.

The Sermon: Pastor Jeff Otterman

Hymn of the Day:

There's A Wideness in God's Mercy

There's a wideness in God's mercy,
like the wideness of the sea;
there's a kindness in God's justice which is more than liberty.
There is no place where earth's sorrows are more felt than up in heav'n.
There is no place where earth's failings have such kindly judgment giv'n.

There is welcome for the sinner,
and a promised grace made good;
there is mercy with the Savior;
there is healing in his blood.
there is grace enough for thousands of new worlds as great as this;
there is room for fresh creations in that upper home of bliss.

Apostles' Creed

I believe in God,
the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.
I believe in Jesus Christ,
God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting.

Amen.

Closing Hymn: Holy Spirit Ever Dwelling

Holy Spirit, ever dwelling in the holiest realms of light;
Holy Spirit, ever brooding o'er a world of gloom and night;
Holy Spirit, ever raising those of earth to thrones on high;
living, life-imparting Spirit, you we praise and magnify.

Holy Spirit, ever working through the church's ministry;
quick'ning, strength'ning, and absolving, setting captive sinners free;

Holy Spirit, ever binding age to age and soul to soul
in communion never ending, you we worship and extol.

Postlude: Allegro Guisto (Petite Suite) Claude Debussy

Second Sunday after Pentecost

Moses tells the Israelites that they are called to be a priestly kingdom and a holy people. Jesus sends out the disciples as laborers into the harvest. In baptism we too are anointed for ministry, sharing God's compassion with our needy world. From the Lord's table we go forth to proclaim the good news, to heal the sick, and to share our bread with the hungry.

Lessons for June 20 & 21, 2020

Jeremiah 20:7-13

Psalm 69: 7-10[11-15]16-18

Romans 6:1b-11

Matthew 10:24-39

First Reading: Exodus 19: 2-8a

²They had journeyed from Rephidim, entered the wilderness of Sinai, and camped in the wilderness; Israel camped there in front of the mountain. ³Then Moses went up to God; the LORD called to him from the mountain, saying, 'Thus you shall say to the house of Jacob, and tell the Israelites: ⁴You have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I bore you on eagles' wings and brought you to myself. ⁵Now therefore, if you obey my voice and keep my covenant, you shall be my treasured possession out of all the peoples. Indeed, the whole earth is mine, ⁶but you shall be for me a priestly kingdom and a holy nation. These are the words that you shall speak to the Israelites.'

⁷So Moses came, summoned the elders of the people, and set before them all these words that the LORD had commanded him. ⁸The people all answered as one: 'Everything that the LORD has spoken we will do.' Moses reported the words of the people to the LORD.

Second Reading: Romans 5: 1-8

¹Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, ²through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. ³And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, ⁴and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, ⁵and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

⁶For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. ⁷Indeed, rarely will anyone die for a righteous person—though perhaps for a good person someone might actually dare to die. ⁸But God proves his love for us in that while we still were sinners Christ died for us.

Gospel: Matthew 9: 35-38, 10:1-8

³⁵Then Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom, and curing every disease and every sickness. ³⁶When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. ³⁷Then he said to his disciples, 'The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; ³⁸therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest.'

¹Then Jesus summoned his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to cure every disease and every sickness.

²These are the names of the twelve apostles: first, Simon, also known as Peter, and his brother Andrew; James son of Zebedee, and his brother John; ³Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax-collector; James son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; ⁴Simon the Cananaean, and Judas Iscariot, the one who betrayed him.

⁵These twelve Jesus sent out with the following instructions: 'Go nowhere among the Gentiles, and enter no town of the Samaritans, ⁶but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. ⁷As you go, proclaim the good news, "The kingdom of heaven has come near." ⁸Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out demons. You received without payment; give without payment.

June Mission of the Month: Pathways Shelter

The mission of Pathways Shelter is to serve the immediate needs of individuals and families experiencing homelessness within the Yankton area, while engaging partners in developing long-term solutions. The shelter was founded on the belief that everyone deserves a home.

Pathways has been in existence since 1994. They are a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization. They aim to give a “hand-up” rather than a “hand-out” in breaking the cycle of homelessness. Their Core Values encompass integrity, respect, inspiration, excellence, community, and financial stewardship.

Pathways has a variety of opportunities for the community to engage with their organization through volunteer work that may include assistance with various maintenance projects, sorting and organizing donations, cooking meals for clients, and teaching courses.

Pathways operates entirely on grants and donations from the community. It takes a great deal of supplies to operate; any donations from the community are greatly appreciated. Their current wish list includes medical supplies, paper products, laundry detergent, dryer sheets, coffee, towels, furniture, meals, canned food items, Walmart and HyVee gift cards, Yankton Transit Tickets, and cleaning supplies.

For more information or to volunteer, please go to their website, www.yanktonpathways.org or call (605)665-8994.

We will have another outdoor service on June 13th & 14th in the parking lot at Trinity. The rest of the summer schedule is as follows:

Saturdays @ 5:30 p.m. Contemporary Service

Sundays @ 9:00 a.m. Contemporary service on June 21st (then every other weekend)

Sundays @ 9:00 a.m. Traditional service beginning on June 14th (then every other weekend)

At this time, we will not be having Wednesday evening services.
