PASTOR AKERS AUGUST MESSAGE TO THE CONGREGATION

Do you have a sense of God's presence in your life? A touching story has been circulating on the Internet. It's about a little five-year-old boy named Timmy. Timmy's Mom loved him very much and, being a worrier, she was concerned about him walking to school when he started kindergarten. She walked him to school the first couple of days, but when he came home one day, he told his mother that he did not want her walking him to school every day. He wanted to be like the "big boys." He protested loudly, so she had an idea of how to handle it.

She asked a neighbor, Mrs. Goodnest, if she would surreptitiously follow her son to school, at a distance behind him that he would not likely notice, but close enough to keep a watch on him. Mrs. Goodnest said that since she was up early with her toddler anyway, it would be a good way for them to get some exercise as well, so she agreed.

The next school day, Mrs. Goodnest and her little girl, Marcy, set out following behind Timmy as he walked to school with another neighbor boy he knew. She did this for the whole week. As the boys walked and chatted, kicking stones and twigs, the little friend of Timmy noticed that this same lady was following them as she seemed to do every day all week. Finally, he said to Timmy, "Have you noticed that lady following us all week? Do you know her?"

Timmy nonchalantly replied, "Yea, I know who she is." The little friend said, "Well who is she?" "That's just Shirley Goodnest," Timmy said. "Shirley Goodnest? Who the heck is she and why is she following us?"

"Well," Timmy explained, "every night my Mom makes me say the 23rd Psalm with my prayers cuz she worries about me so much. And in it, the psalm says, "Shirley Goodnest and Marcy shall follow me all the days of my life.' So I guess I'll just have to get used to it."

As a pun, that is pretty bad: "Shirley Goodnest and Marcy shall follow me all the days of my life." But it's good theology. God is with us... all the days of our lives. He is with us at school, at work, at home, on the roadways and wherever life takes us.

May God's goodness and mercy follow you all the days of your life!

Pastor Barry Akers

Psalm 23:6
⁶ Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

FEATURED BOOKS FOR AUGUST!

The Undoing of Saint Silvanus by Beth Moore Beth's first work of fiction has Jullian Slater walking into a web of spiritual and personal danger borne out of her family's broken history. Only God himself can orchestrate the undoing of all that is going on at Jullian's grandmother's apartment house, Saint Silvanus.

Anxious for Nothing by Max Lucado Philippians 4:6-7 is the most underlined passage in the Bible. According to this promise, anxiety comes with life, but it doesn't have to dominate your life. Let's invite God to reframe the way we face our fears and win the war on worry. By his power we will "be anxious for nothing" and experience the "peace of God, which surpasses all understanding."
