Good afternoon to all of you!!

Spring is almost here by the calendar but we know it has sprung already. I understand we are no longer in a drought!! Yeah!

The trip to the MAPs conference was well worth the time, as always. Thank you, Liz Law, for being the chauffer. We had some interesting wet weather coming home, but still made it in good time.

There was a small group at the Story Witnessing conference. It was very interesting and I hope that I will be able to make it a part of my walk with Jesus. There will be a follow up later this year as I understand. Thank you to Trinity for hosting this event and to Margaret Slusher, Randy Adams, Joe Flegal, Bruce Sloan and Ron Allen for your time and effort on our behalf.

College Heights and Grace's Revivals end tonight at 7:00 and 6:00 respectively.

Pastors, don't forget to register through me by March 31st for Oasis. SBA will be paying for your registration. Please E-mail me by that date. As I receive your registration I will let Marsha know. We have four couples at this point on the E-mail list.

I hear also that Sixth Street in Gold Beach has called a pastor. I do not know any more than that. PTL for God's blessing in this area for them.

Soon, Easter Sunday, Living Hope Church will be launching!

Have a great day!!

Nancy
