Spring Revival Evangelist requests

<http://www.swbts.edu/index.cfm?pageid=1528> (copy and paste)

The website above gives you info and will lead you to the paperwork to request an evangelist for a Spring Revival.

Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary (out of Texas) sends out preachers, students and faculty each year to stir the embers of Revival the dates this year are March 10-13. They will pay for the travel expenses you just have to host their stay at your church (love offerings are accepted but not required).

Grace has been doing it for years. Last year Lozier also had one of their student. It is an amazing opportunity for them, as well as, our church families. We have been blessed by the winds of Revival. We called this morning and they said to get them the requests asap if interested.

Praying for our churches, our flocks and our fields,
Sherry

FYI - Web Bible Study: Corrected! Thank you.

The Courage of My Faith- Relates to our Southern Baptist History and other topics of interest.

<http://www.macyplace.com/coyf/couragehome.aspx> (you may need to copy and paste)

All materials (including slide shows, images, supporting documents, Bible studies, and short stories) related to this study can be downloaded and used without a charge. Support for this work is by donation only.

Twelve contemporary are issues examined in the context of Baptist history. The stories can also be downloaded in eBook form from their Overview pages.

Short stories from our Baptist history set the stage for Bible studies on issues as relevant today as they were then. You will be challenged and you will be surprised by what stands our forefathers took and by the impact they had.

Today, "denomination" has lost significance. "Christian" seems more appropriate as we seek to minimize differences. Yet looking at Baptist History, as in this study, teaches us something of what it means to be a Christian and the role Baptists had in making the world what is today. "Baptists are indeed a peculiar people."
