Good afternoon everyone!

Oh my it has been a long and interesting month! Our last newsletter was just before the NWBC Annual Meeting. Spokane is a pretty little city and full of interesting things. I did not get out except for a couple of meals. I'm hoping that they will make available the speaking/preaching times. I enjoyed each one. Business went along just fine with everyone who served last year to serve this year. Put on your calendar that the NWBC Annual Meeting 2017 will be in Eugene, Nov 14-15. The Women's Ministry/WMU and the Pastor/Layman conference will be on Nov 13, 2017.

I hope you all had a great Thanksgiving Holiday. We ate to much, so are on the pre-Christmas watch what you eat program at this point!! Something about family and eating it just goes together.

Our last SBA event of 2016 will be on December 10th. It is the luncheon for the seniors of your church. It will be at Living Hope in Medford at noon. You need to let Shawn Snyder know how many are coming from your church. Text or call 541-816-2121 – E-mail at getsnyder@gmail.com

Our first event of 2017 will be the Children's Skate. January 7. Brandie Woody is the contact I think.....

I am still hoping to complete the minutes of the Annual Meeting and will get those and what information I have from the ACP report out with next week's Newsletter Mail out. If you have anything happening in December or January let me know so it can get into the mail out!

The office will be closed the week between Christmas and New Years including New Years Day 2017!
