The Opening Prayer (Read responsively)

Grace to you and peace from God who is, and was, and is to come. Amen.

And from Jesus Christ the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead, and ruler of kings on earth. Amen. The grace of the Lord Jesus be with all the saints.

Amen. For rebirth and resilience, blessed be God; for the spiritually humble, glory to God, hallelujah; for all who hunger and thirst for justice, praise him and magnify him forever; for all who are banned from speaking the truth, blessed be God; for all who triumph over their bitter circumstances, glory to God, hallelujah; for all who risk reputation, livelihood, and life itself for Christ’s sake and the gospel; all praise and all glory; this is God’s kingdom; praise him and love him forever.

“The Scripture Lesson

Matthew 5:1-12

The Sacrament of Holy Communion

After this I looked, and there was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, robed in white, with palm branches in their hands. They cried out in a loud voice, saying:

Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb.

Let us give you thanks for these brothers and sisters in Christ to whom God has granted rest from their labors. (Names read) Almighty God, we give thanks for these your servants whom we remember today. Grant us grace to follow them as they followed Christ. Bring us, with them, to those things no eye has seen, nor ear heard, which you have prepared for those who love you.

Give us faith to look beyond touch and sight, and seeing that we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witness, enable us to run with perseverance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith. Bring us at last to your eternal peace, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.
