

September 2013

Greetings again church family.

I hope you are enjoying going through Dr. Robert Jeffress's book How Can I Know: Answers to Life's 7 Most Important Questions. Our goal in going through this book is to equip the body of Christ to answer the important questions in life. This is important in our personal walk with the Lord and our witness to others as we go out in our community. Hopefully by studying the core truths of our faith, we can all be better equipped to offer a defense for the hope that is within us.

Please also be in prayer for our church as we begin another year of AWANA. IT has been a joy to watch the children come and learn about Jesus. I pray this ministry will continue to grow and be a blessing for those who come – both the teachers and the students.

Thanks again for allowing me to be your pastor. May God bless each of you.

Your heart will be where your treasure is.

– Matthew 6:21

The most powerful life is the most simple life. The powerful life is the life that knows where it's going, that knows where the source of strength is, and the life that stays free of clutter and happenstance and hurriedness.

Being busy is not a sin. Jesus was busy. Paul was busy. Peter was busy. Nothing of significance is achieved without effort and hard work and weariness . . . But being busy in an endless pursuit of things that leave us empty and hollow and broken inside – that cannot be pleasing to God.
