ANNOUNCEMENTS

Many thanks to everyone who helped with the Fall Festival and the chili cook-off. People behind the scenes who helped but never were visible...you know who you are; people who were out there in full view working the games and playing with the children; and the people furnishing the necessary equipment and supplies for a successful fall festival. Thank you! May God richly bless you and the labor of your hands. The festival work is now finished. The rest is in God's Holy Hands. We thank you, God, for blessing our fall festival, for making it a success and a field ripe for harvesting.
