Please let the church office know if there are additions, or if someone can be taken off the list or a condition has changed

Our Christian sympathy and concern go out to the families of Lee Hughes on the death of his uncle, and Dana Moeller on the death of her Mother. May God's peace be with these families.

Childlike faith focuses on our Heavenly Father - not on our fears.

Looking for Your News!

We would love to include news of your families in the newsletter. Achievements of children, grandchildren – all extended family – are news worthy. Please leave a note today or call the church office by Tuesday for inclusion in the March “Key To St Peter.”

JOIN US.....

..for worship as we “Sing With the Exiles” each Wednesday night in Lent at 7:00. Let’s walk the Lenten way together to the cross and the empty tomb, turning sadness into shouts of joy.

February 22 “Be strong and courageous, the Lord goes before you every day. Be strong and courageous, the Lord went before you, even before you were you. His For Life work through you becomes clearer every day. Hearts and minds are changed. Our life-affirming younger generation inspires us all. More pastors connect the Gospel to the life issues. More educators teach our children to value every life. We have the most powerful and positive For Life message in the universe and nothing can stand against it! Be strong and courageous!” Rev. Dr. James I. Lamb, executive director of Lutherans For Life – A “Life Quote” from Lutherans For Life • www.lutheransforlife.org

SERMON OUTLINE

While we ask, “Why Me?” God is at work in the midst of life’s trials

Genesis 22:1-18

- 1. Abraham had every right to ask, “Why Me?”
- 2. God was answering, “I will” provide the lamb.
- 3. God provides His “I will” in the midst of our “Why Me’s”
