POTLUCK TODAY!!!!

Join us for the spread we can always count on at our potlucks. We will here a few words from Lutheran Social Services with whom we work so closely on the Angel Tree Project at Christmas. They appreciate our help so much - let's allow them to share with us the possibility of doing other things with them.... Along with enjoying a fantastic meal and wonderful fellowship!

QUILTING

We will be having a quilting day for Lutheran World Relief TOMORROW, April 25 beginning at 9 a.m. There will be people working on quilts all day so you can come and go. Bring a sack lunch if you wish as lunch will NOT be provided. We have a lot of new material to work with so come and join us!

ONCE AGAIN WE UNDERLINE.....

SUNDAY SCHOOL is for everybody! Won't you join us – children and adults.? Pastor's adult class is delving into topics that affect us all, currently it's "Forgiveness." Arn's adult class looks at issues of the day. And the children are brought closer to a loving Jesus they can keep with them EVERY day. There's not a Sunday when some new understanding isn't achieved through study and fellowship. If you were disappointed before, try again! Materials and atmosphere have changed. Come and accept God's invitation to come closer to Him and each other!

CHOIR RESUMES

After a brief hiatus, the choir will once again begin practicing at 6:00 p.-m on Wednesdays. Come join us in song and fellowship. Singing talent is not a prerequisite – just a desire to praise the Lord!

SERMON OUTLINE

God's Grace and Promise binds together all who believe
(Acts 11:1–18)

- I. We may be skeptical of God bringing to faith others outside our own circle.
- II. God leaves no doubt about His purpose to include everyone.
- III. God calls all to faith through the same Word and Spirit.
