Life Thought for the Seventh Sunday of Easter – This Sunday marks the last Sunday of Easter, but not the last of Easter’s hope! It goes with us and sustains us. Jesus’ resurrection gives us the assurance that what Jesus prays for will be accomplished. “Father, I desire that they also, whom you have given me, may be with me where I am, to see my glory ... ” (John 17:24a). The certain hope of seeing Jesus’ glory helps us deal with our very inglorious world. Prayer: Father, enable us to dwell on Your glory instead of seeking our own glory.
