Seventh Sunday of Easter – “Your adversary the devil” (1 Peter 5:8) loves abortion. He delights in the destruction of God’s handiwork. He loves to turn on those he deceived into making this choice and lead them to despair. “Resist him”! (9) He is a toothless, defeated enemy in Christ. Trust that Christ “will himself restore, confirm, strengthen, and establish you” (10). Prayer: Lord Jesus, restore, confirm, strengthen, and establish me in my faith. Amen.

Sermon Outline

Fiery Trials? Don't be surprised.
1 Peter 4:12-19, 5:6-11

I. We shouldn't view it as strange when persecution comes.

II. It isn't strange because God has a purpose for allowing persecution: testing & purifying our faith.

III. There is nothing strange about persecution, because Christ will always be right there with us.

GRADUATE INFORMATION

Please submit high school and college graduates' information and awards in writing to the church office so that we can recognize them in next month's newsletter. You may also e-mail them to stpeterscty@att.net.

We need some large pieces of cardboard to cut and paint for VBS decorations. Contact Rebecca Pickett if you have some.

BABY BOTTLE DRIVE – Thank you to all who have picked up baby bottles. Remember to fill it with loose change, dollars or a check made out to the PRC. Return it the church by June 15. Thank you for changing and blessing lives.
