Tenth Sunday after Pentecost – Buried and raised with Christ in baptism, our record of sinful debt cancelled, sin and evil defeated (Colossians 2:6-15), we can undeservedly but joyfully pray, “Father” (Luke 11:2). As a dear father listens to his dear children, so our heavenly Father listens to us. Include in your prayers a petition for restoration of the God-given value of life in our churches and our culture. Prayer: Our Father, as baptized children, hear our prayer. May Your wrath not be kindled against Your people for failing to uphold the value of life. Rather restore in us all a strong desire to be voices for life. Amen. www.lutheransforlife.org
