Spread out your petition before God, and then say, "Thy will, not mine, be done." The sweetest lesson I have learned in God's school is to let the Lord choose for me. ~ D.L. Moody

Seventeenth Sunday after Pentecost – “To the King of ages, immortal invisible, the only God, be honor and glory forever and ever. Amen” (1 Timothy 1:17). Paradoxically Paul’s praise here is precipitated by God leaving His kingly throne, laying aside His immortality, and becoming visible as a man to suffer and die on a cross! Today’s readings portray our God who comes to seek and save sinners, indeed, the worst of sinners! What a praise-worthy message for us all, and especially for those with a specific sin that seems so much worse than other sins. Prayer: Good Shepherd, thank You for coming to us in our lost condition and forgiving the worst of sins and the worst of sinners just like me. Amen. www.lutheransforlife.org
