A Note About Today's Special Music

The lyrics for Michael's special today, "Come, O Thou Traveler Unknown", were written by Charles Wesley. The complete poem is found on page 387 of the red hymnal. Charles was influenced by Jacob wrestling with the angel (Gen. 32:24-32), as well as 2 Cor. 12:10. Two weeks after Charles died, John Wesley was trying to teach this hymn to a congregation, but broke down when singing the words "my company before me is gone, and I am left alone with thee."
