R&C YOUTH NEWS

BEARS FOR CHRIST NEWS

I hope you all had a wonderful Thanksgiving break! You better be ready to kick it in gear because you only have one week of classes left before finals!

I know it seems early, but our Christmas Party is THIS THURSDAY NIGHT at the Davidson's house. Watch Facebook for details.

We WILL be having our Growth Group tonight at 7 pm. Come join us at the campus house! Melissa and I have put together some treat bags for you to get you through the last two weeks. I hope you can join us and pick one up. We love you and will miss you over the Christmas break.

Elaine Howerton has been diagnosed with breast cancer and will see a surgeon on Monday to determine course of treatment.

Savannah Brown and her newborn son Oliver Brown are still in serious condition following his arrival into the world last week.

Klinton Peabody, grandson of Betty Ann Edwards was born premature and is having issues with his lungs; he is in ACH.

Elaina Taylor has been in ACH, they hope to have a diagnosis soon so that she can find a treatment to fix her health problems.

Debbie Moreland is recuperating at home from knee replacement surgery.

Cindy Shelton had her last chemo treatment and last radiation treatment.

Keep in our prayers – JD Hall, Dwight Baxley, Carroll Lackey, H.R. Fagan.

THANK YOU

We wish to sincerely thank everyone who contributed to our money tree. We used it to purchase a tablet for me to communicate with my new bride while I am in Afghanistan. We greatly appreciated the other gifts we received and especially the help from members while setting up and cleaning up.

Zac & Audreya Brown

Thank you for your generous financial support for my upcoming trip to Honduras. I am blessed to be a part of a congregation that always strives to serve others. Please pray for our treat as it approaches!
