

Christian Education Committee Meeting

March 13, 2012

Present: Kay Elvehjem, Jan Ferguson, Gayle Nemmers, Jeff Rach, Julie Savoie, and Kristi Anderson.

Absent: Pastor Kluver and Tonia Hagedon.

The meeting was opened with devotions by Julie.

Jan reviewed expenses/bills so far this year:

Adult bible study - Phoenix Center down payment = $172.00

Sunday School – quilt batting for Senior Recognition Sunday = $22.42

Vacation Bible School – SKY starter kit = $157.99

Vacation Bible School – “Unbroken” book for adult bible study = $9.99

Bible Study

The adult bible study starting Monday, April 16, 2012 will be held at the Phoenix Center for four sessions. Jan will prepare the food and asked for volunteers to assist her. A note will be in the bulletin regarding the bible study and that child care would be provided if needed.

Discussion was had regarding a fellowship activity/event for young adults and children. We will visit with the Youth and Family Ministry Committee about coordinating this event.

Sunday School

We will plan a special activity for the last day of Sunday School which will be May 15, 2012. We should hand out surveys for the education program at that time. The surveys should include the current education activities that are offered.

Vacation Bible School

Jan has purchased the SKY starter kit for vacation bible school. She also purchased the book “Unbroken” for the adult bible study during vacation bible school. The leadership team for vacation bible school will be Laurie Kluver, Kay Elvehjem, Tonia Hagedon, and Jan Ferguson. Pastor Kluver has reserved the dates of August 5 through 8 with New Life Church.

Other Discussion

Jan reviewed the Living Word Lutheran Church Child Protection Policy and Procedures and the Christian Education Committee’s policies, goals, and budget.

The library is a subcommittee of the Christian Education Committee. Dodie Sorbel reported that the Library Committee has downloaded a software program on the church computer that will print labels and cards for the materials in the library.

The meeting was closed with the Lord's Prayer.

The next meeting will be held on April 10, 2012 at 6:30 P.M. Gayle will give devotions.
