Keith Redfield	2 years
Keith Anderson	1 years
Solveig Elton	1 years
Don Nelson	2 years
Rocky Burgau	3 years
Kathie Lillehaugen	3 years

C. Don Nelson was appointed chairman and Solveig Elton secretary.

D. The plan for Temple talks and Special Emphasis Appeals was continued as follows:

Temple talks: April (3rd Sunday), June (2nd Sunday), August, October
Special Emphasis Appeals: March (Habitat for Humanity), May (Fellowship of Christian Athletes), July, September, October, November. Gideons, Titus 2, Int'l Health Services-Honduras and Teen Challenge are the remaining Special Emphasis organizations to be scheduled. They are to be scheduled by the chairman. There were no additions to the list suggested at the January meeting.

A rough draft of Guidelines for Special Emphasis speakers was discussed and finalized as attached.

E. The proposal for Benevolence Giving was reviewed and is presented to the LWLC council for approval (attached). Changes to the 2011 list are: LOVE Inc., LCMC churches, and Shalom Ministry of the LCMC have been added. The Reclaim Hymnal has been dropped.

F. A rough draft of the rationale for how the committee develops the list of benevolence recipients was discussed and finalized for 2012. It is entitled Guidelines for Benevolence Giving and is attached.

- G. The 2012 monthly guide for the LWLC Treasurer for sending benevolence monies was reviewed and is attached. Peace Lutheran in Nevis is to receive the first $500 (March) of the $2000 to be given to new LCMC congregations. The plan for the “To be determined” is for the amount to appear on the schedule in October but may be distributed earlier than that as exigencies arise.
- H. Rocky Burgau agreed to be responsible for preparing an information sheet on the missionaries, the Hernandez’ family through the World Mission Prayer League so the congregation is aware of this outreach. AJ said that he would see if the Director of WMPL would be agreeable to do a sermon some time this year.
- I. We will review the Memorial Fund Policy at the next meeting.
