"Easter Instruction: Revel in the Relationship"

Pastor
Jan Yandell

Dear Friends and Friends I have not yet met,

There is a wonderful children's song entitled, "Welcome to the Family."
It was written by Steve and Mari Jean Green. The words are written below:

"Welcome to the family, we're glad that you have come

To share your life with us, as we grow in love and
May we always be to you what God would have us be
A family always there to be strong and to lean on.

May we learn to love each other more with each new day
May words of love be on our lips in everything we say
May the spirit melt our hearts and teach us how to pray
That we might be a true family."

Though the words seem rather simplistic, they reflect the relationship we are called to have with one another as God calls us to be his children. We are all in this together. And whoever walks through our doors needs to hear how glad we are that they have "come to share their life with us." In fact, even if they don't walk through our doors they need to know this.

When a couple comes to me to plan a wedding and we get into the counseling aspect of my job, I always remind them that they should be more in love today than they were yesterday and less in love today than they will be tomorrow. Why...Because we all need to "learn to love each other more with each new day!" Every experience we have together creates a stronger relationship whether we are speaking about God or each other.

We are all God's children, let's revel in that relationship!

Blessings, PJ
