"Easter Instruction: Attend to the Action"

Pastor
Jan Yandell

Dear Friends and Friends I have not yet met,

1 John 3:16 is not the Gospel of John 3:16, but it is still powerful!

It reads, "We know love by this that he laid down his life for us – and we ought to lay down our lives for one another." Most of us may never be in a situation where we literally have to lay down our lives for another, or so we may think. But what might we be willing to lay down, for another?

Can we lay down our phones long enough to have a real conversation with a young person, that might keep that young person from doing some harmful activity, thereby "saving their life." Can we lay down our remote controls for the television, so that we might have some quality time with our spouse, thereby saving a marriage? Can we lay down our forks when it comes time for dessert, thereby, perhaps, saving our own lives? Can we lay down our burdens at the foot of the cross and lift up the name of Jesus, perhaps to help save the world.

What are you willing to lay down for another?

Blessings, PJ

Children's Time

*Call to Worship:

Leader: We know love by this, that he laid down his life for us – and we ought to lay down our lives for one another.

People: They will know we are Christians by our love!

Leader: Let us love not in word or speech, but in truth and action.

People: They will know we are Christians by our love!

Leader: This is his commandment, that we should believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another.

People: They will know we are Christians by our love!

Leader: So how will they know you are a Christian?

People: They will know we are Christians by our love!
