Dear Friends and Friends I have not yet met,

I am grateful to Nick for taking care of worship this week! Jim and I will return soon, but it is nice to know that the church is in good hands while we are visiting family. Thanks also to all who have helped out with the Farmer's Market and Grill on the Hill in our absence. This church is so blessed with talented and willing folks that make our ministry here so diverse and wonderful.

Like the master in charge of the "Great Dinner" in today's scripture, we want the house to be full; full of joyful hearts that want to serve in the name of Jesus; full of grateful souls who worship together in love; full of exciting educators who want others to learn about our amazing savior; and full of people who want to learn to live and love like Jesus!

Let's go out and gather in all the folks we meet on the streets, the poor and the rich, the lame and the able-bodied, the downtrodden, and the high-spirited. Jesus is calling them, and we have room for all in our church and in our lives. Let us show the world what a welcoming community of believers looks like!

Blessings, PJ

*Call to Worship

Leader: In the Gospel of Luke, Chapter 14, Jesus tells of three things that happened when he was invited to dinner at the house of a Pharisee.

People: First, he healed someone on the Sabbath, second he explained about humility and how one should seat themselves in the back row and be asked to move forward; and last he described who ought to be invited to a dinner.

Leader: When someone at the table boasted about how great it will be to feast in the Kingdom of God, Jesus told his parable.

People: And once again, Jesus turned the worldly thinking upside down and the people were left wondering how they ended up on the wrong side!

Leader: Don't assume you have Jesus figured out, but listen closely to his teaching and you will come to understand his message.

People: We are listening, teach us the ways of the Lord!

Prayer Requests and Celebrations; Pastoral Prayer & The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory for ever. Amen

ARE YOUR KIDS GETTING BORED?

We are about midway through the summer & that's when kids start getting bored & parents are frustrated. Why not check out the books on the library display table in the Circle Room. All the books are for kids this month. For even more selection go inside the library where children's books are on the first shelf near the far window. Check out instructions are on the display table.
