Pastor Jan Yandell

PJ's Post

Dear Friends and Friends I have not yet met,

He is risen! He is risen indeed! Happy Easter!

Welcome to all who are worshipping with us today. We are so happy you have come to celebrate this joyous day, and we pray you will come and share worship with us again. After both the 8:30 and the 10:00 services there are light refreshments in the Circle Room which is through the doors on either side of the altar area. This is a wonderful opportunity to meet and greet others who have come to worship today.

It always intrigued me that we have said for generations, "He is risen! He is risen indeed!" Putting a past event in the present tense always seemed just a little strange. So, of course, I Googled it. After reading several theories about King James English, the many different kinds of "tenses" it might be, and then becoming as confused as I was in high school English classes, I have decided to go a theological route and just say this: Christ rose from the dead that first Easter and he remains risen in my heart and mind to this day. Therefore He is as risen today as he was 2,000 years ago! Christ is risen! He is risen indeed! And that is all that matters!!!

Have a blessed Easter Day and a wonderful Easter Season!
