Pastor Jan Yandell

Dear Friends and Friends I have not yet met, Last Sunday we finished up our Lenten Study of John Ortberg's book, "Who Is This Man?". It was an incredible book and a wonderful group of 17 people who joined in the study. The main premise of the book was how many ways Jesus has affected society even after 2,000 years. The treatment of children, women, the marginalized of the world has not been the same since this little known carpenter began his preaching and teaching. The church which grew to praise and worship God through him has changed the world with institutions of education, healing, and hope. Orphanages, colleges, hospitals, soup kitchens, etc. have all been established in his name. Art, music, poetry, books have all been used to promote the teachings of this Super God who came to live as a simple man.

Today as we celebrate once again his arrival into Jerusalem, we remember that the people at that time did not know what we know now. They did not understand all of the religious, political and radically social sides of the crowd who first shouted Hosanna and later called for his crucifixion. The only one who fully understood the ramifications of that day was Jesus.

2,000 years later his story is still on the best seller's list. His life is an example for millions. His love has been shown to others in ways too numerous to count, and his promise of everlasting life gives hope to all who believe. As we go through this Holy Week, may we all be willing to walk through his passion, understand the pain he suffered for us, and know in our hearts the sacrifice he made so that we all might live lives of courage, commitment, and hope.

Maundy Thursday at 7:00 pm: Tables of 12. Our service will begin in the sanctuary and close with groups of 12 taking communion together as the disciples did on that night before Jesus died.

Good Friday at 7:00 pm: The youth and children of the church will be leading our service in the sanctuary which will close with a "Live Tenebrae." The young people will build a candle lit cross during the readings of Jesus birth, life, and ministry and then will extinguish the candles as the passion story is read, after which everyone will exit the sanctuary in darkness.

Easter Sunrise Service at 6:15 am: Come enjoy the rising of the Son of God at the rising of the sun on Easter morning at the Gazebo in Veteran's Park. Our service will begin at 6:15 and end with Sunrise at 6:45. There will be light refreshments following in the Circle Room. Some chairs will be set up, but you are also encouraged to bring your own.

Easter Services: 8:30 and 10:00 am. We will celebrate the Risen Lord with music, prayer, praise and preaching.

Palm Sunday opens Holy Week with a celebration. Today represents Jesus of Nazareth journey into Jerusalem, on the back of a young colt. Jesus was greeted by an excited crowd waving palms, a symbol of royalty, and laying their cloaks on the ground for Jesus' animal to walk on. "The crowds that went ahead of him and those that followed shouted, 'Hosanna to the Son of David! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest heaven!'" (Matthew 21: 9) Palm Sunday is also known as Passion Sunday. This day marks the beginning of the passion or suffering of Jesus leading to and including the crucifixion.

Maundy Thursday

represents the last night Jesus spent with his disciples before he was betrayed and arrested. He washed their feet and told them "to love one another as he had loved them" (John 13:34). This evening also represents the Last Supper, or Holy Communion.

The goodness of Good Friday is an unhappy celebration—isn't that an oxymoron? How can the day of Jesus' crucifixion be a day of celebration? This day represents anything but happiness and joy; but of sadness, mourning, fasting, and prayer. Paul said, "My joy was greater than ever." Why? Because such godly sorrow "brings repentance that leads to salvation and leaves no regret" (2 Cor. 7:10). Good Friday, also called "Holy" Friday, recalls for us the greatness and wonder of God's love—that He should submit to death for us.

Good Morning All!

Today is Palm Sunday, the Sunday before Easter. This has been one of my favorite Sundays at the Church, ever since I was little! I remember being so excited to wave the palm and walk through the church with Ms. Judy. I'm sure all the children will be excited to wave palms at our 10am service- I encourage you to watch and enjoy their excitement, just as the children were excited to see Jesus come to Jerusalem. There is nothing like the pure excitement and joy of children!

Confirmation 2017

This week in our confirmation profile series is about Zane Mauter! Zane has an interesting name that you may not often hear. It means "good adviser", and for our trivia question of the week, he was named after the author Zane Grey. Zane lives with his parents Jim and Bridgette, and brother Zach.

He attends LaMuth Middle School here in Painesville Twp where his favorite subject is band because he loves music. When Zane is older he'd like to attend school to become a pediatrician helping take care of kids!

Zane is going through confirmation with his friend Ozzie who will be featured in an upcoming week but they enjoy spending a lot of time together. Zane also likes building forts outside and playing with his dog. He feels that getting exercise and going to school are very important to take care of your mind and body.

He's looking forward to learning more about our savior and creation during Confirmation Class and he enjoys the church because it gives us a place to worship and talk with God.

Please make sure to say "Hi" to Zane!

Regular Sunday School today, Family Worship next week for Easter Sunday :)

This morning all children are invited to our Easter Egg Hunt following the 10am service. Please meet in Parson's Hall at 11am.

Enjoy this beautiful Holy Week,

Ms. Johanna

*Call to Worship

Leader: On this Palm Sunday we recall the shouts of glad hosanna with which the people greeted Jesus. They were ready to hail him as the Christ,

People: But he was not the Christ for whom they were looking.

Leader: They were looking for a wearer of the purple,

People: But he traded the robes of royalty for the garment of a servant.

Leader: They were looking for a swashbuckling warrior,

People: But he praised the makers of peace.

Leader: They were looking for one who would cater to the cries of the high and mighty,

People: But he ministered to the needs of the meek and lowly.

Leader: Today, O Lord, Let us both recall and reclaim the life and ministry of Jesus of Nazareth,

People: Lest our shouts of glad hosanna betray the Christ who came to save us.
(Tilson & Cole, 1992)
