Greetings,

As I thought about the coming weeks, knowing that Pastor Jan would be away with family, back for a short time, then out having and recovering from surgery, taking us through August and into September, I asked myself, how will I get all the things that I know have to be done, let alone, any unforeseen things that may come along.

Most of me said, I am perfectly capable, I've been in similar situations and have been fine. I've been here at PUMC for 14 months and have handled everything that has crossed my path. Even knowing that and that it is not helpful to worry about things, a small part of me got a bit anxious. Fortunately, before things got very uncomfortable, I stopped and prayed, for calm...for strength. Almost immediately, I felt better.

The tension and anxiety went away. My body relaxed, I felt renewed, and I went on about my business. As I think about it, this time and in all times, God gives me the calming assurance that together we can handle whatever comes along. What a relief!

Aaron Tabor, author of the book, "Jesus Daily" writes, in part, "...then some unexpected trial or problem arises that sends our usual routine for a loop. Then we wonder if life will ever get back to normal, whatever that may be. While our routines may not be the same again, we can trust that God remains the source of our strength, our salvation, and our peace. Just as storm clouds move through and unleash thunder, lightning, and rain, events may catch us off guard and leave us frightened and anxious. However, each day we can know that no matter what storms life may bring, our Father has already gone ahead of us. The storms of life will pass and sunshine returns. God is with us!

I hope you find God's comfort, strength, and calming assurance in your lives, too!

Blessings, Nick

*Call to Worship

Leader: The foolish say, "There is no God! We are alone, on our own."

People: We gather to declare the glory of God in our lives.

Leader: The foolish say, "It is your life; you are accountable to no one."

People: We gather, strengthened by the Spirit, trusting that Christ dwells in our hearts.

Leader: The foolish say, "Everything I have is mine; I owe nothing to anyone."

People: We gather to praise the One who calls us to serve others in love.

*Opening Hymn

Praise, My Soul, the King of Heaven

UMH #66

Passing the Peace of Christ; Prayer Requests and Celebrations, Call to Prayer, Pastoral Prayer

The Lord's Prayer

"Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on Earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory for ever. Amen."
