Dear Friends and Friends I have not yet met,

Have you ever been in a situation that literally takes your legs out from under you? You have done something wrong, or someone has done you wrong, or physically, mentally, or emotionally you are at the end of your rope. Where do you go? What do you do?

I love the lyrics of this contemporary Christian song,

"Where do I go when I need a shelter?
Where do I go when I need a friend?
Where do I go when I need some helping?
Where do I go? Back on my knees again!"

Now thankfully, the song is about going to God with prayer. Tomorrow, I go in for my second total knee replacement. I was told after the first one not to kneel on that knee anymore. So I am assuming after the second one, my kneeling days are done. Yet, where I go when I need shelter or a friend or help is not a position of my body, but a humble position of my heart. Believe me, that is where I am as I prepare for the surgery and the rehab.

I will be out of the pulpit for three weeks and am so grateful for Alison Streiff, Rev. Sondra Snode, and Nick for filling in while I recover. I cherish your prayers, and ask that you pray for Jim as well. I am so thankful that I have such a competent and dedicated staff that I know all needs will be met efficiently and professionally. God is good...ALL THE TIME!

Blessings, PJ

The Lord's Prayer

"Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on Earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory for ever. Amen."
