Dear Friends and Friends I have not yet met,

I hope this finds you well. I am sure I am on my way to recovery from my surgery last Monday. I am so grateful to Alison for bringing the message today. When I asked her, there was no hesitation at all. When she saw that the passage for the day was Psalm 84, she told me it was one of her favorites. God is good, all the time!

In the next couple of weeks the church begins to gear up for the school year. Classes that have taken a hiatus over the summer will begin again. The vocal and bell choirs will begin their practices and performances. Sunday School for children begins its regular schedule. All of these things help the church to be all it can be and are so very important.

I pray that you will consider joining something new this Fall. It has been documented that people who become involved in at least one extra activity beyond worship in a church find a sense of fulfillment and joy in Christ that they had not known before. Talk to the church staff about the existing studies and groups and if you do not see something in which you may be interested, let us know. If you have a particular skill you would like to share with others, please tell us and we will find a place in the church schedule to accommodate your desires.

This is YOUR church and you can make it the very best it can be. God has brought us all together in this place, at this time for a reason. Let's explore what God is calling each of us to do!

See you in a couple of weeks!

Blessings, PJ and her new left knee!
