"An Old Story for a New Day: Faithfulness & Blessings"

Pastor Jan Yandell

Dear Friends and Friends I have not yet met,

Welcome to Painesville United Methodist Church during the Party in the Park. It is a challenge to be on the square on days like these, but remember we are "On the square AND steeped in prayer." It is a blessing to be the church in the center of activity and with our doors open wide, we have the great opportunity to minister to so many more people as we come and go from worship today.

For some who are attending the party, but do not have much experience with the church-going crowd, our acceptance, our attitude, our body language and talk will either create a welcoming atmosphere where someone might just wander in and find Jesus, OR we could turn people away from the church or even worse, away from God.

This is a weekend in which we need to put our best feet forward, be the true examples of Christ in all that we do and say. Wouldn't it be wonderful, if someone came to know Jesus, because they first met YOU on Party in the Park Sunday, July 16, 2017? The opportunity is here; make it happen, for God's sake!

Blessings, PJ
