Pastor
Jan Yandell

Dear Friends and Friends I have not yet met,

This is a two for one day! The last Sunday of Advent and Christmas Eve! How exciting and wonderful! The fourth candle of Advent is lit this morning representing the joy of the season. The eyes of the children are already filled with that look of anticipation as the magic morning of Christmas is finally in view.

I remember the joy and excitement I felt as a child sitting on the top step in our home waiting for the jingle bells to ring signaling that we could come down stairs and see what gifts had appeared overnight. One gift that always sticks out in my mind was a little doll that came with a little plastic swing set. She could be put in the swing and swung; she could be put on the teeter-totter and made to go up and down. She had a button on her tummy that made her arms pop up as if reaching to be picked up and loved. She was worth the wait, and enjoyed for a long time. She was there on Christmas morning, waiting for me when the bells rang.

That awe and wonder, that anxiousness in waiting, that sudden burst of energy when the signal is given is the same thing we should experience this day, even as adults. We have been waiting and waiting for the greatest gift ever given; the special gift given by God the Father on this night every year; the gift of his son, Jesus. Just like my favorite gift as a child, we get to receive a baby, one that will swing with us in the ebbs and flows of life, one that will be with us during our ups and downs, a baby whose arms are always reaching out to be picked up and loved. He is worth the wait, and will be with you for your lifetime and beyond. He is there on Christmas morning waiting for all of us.

I pray you will find the joy of Jesus this Christmas. I invite you to develop a "Stable Relationship" with him and find in him the hope, peace, love, and joy that makes life worth living and the world worth loving. I invite you to join us at 3:00, 7:00, or 11:00 pm for our celebration of Jesus's birth, ushering in the light of Christ to brighten all things on earth.

Blessings, PJ
