PJ's Post

Pastor Jan Yandell

Dear Friends and Friends I have not yet met, Unfortunately, the news is full of words of retaliation and threats of violence, but our scripture today says we need to live by a different set of standards. Jesus said, "You have heard that it was said, "An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth. But I say to you, do not resist an evildoer. But if anyone strikes you on the right cheek, turn the other also..." I believe it was Gandhi who said, "An eye for an eye will leave everyone blind." He and Jesus were on the same page when it came to nonviolence and working together.

This passage also speaks of loving our enemies. Those are pretty difficult words to digest in a world that seems to be turning in another direction. But that is what Jesus is calling us to do. Jesus said we need to "Be perfect, therefore, as your heavenly Father is perfect." I don't know about you, but I am a long way from perfection. However, John Wesley, the founder of the Methodist Movement said we should all be striving for that perfection. So, let's start today. Striving to live lives that follow the example of Jesus and thereby would give glory to God!

I am not sure if any of us will make it to perfection in this lifetime, but I do know we will never come close if we aren't striving for it every day we have breath!

Blessings,

PJ

Christian Education

This past week we celebrated Valentine's Day, a day when many celebrate their love for others by bestowing gifts of kindness in the form of cards, flowers, candy, and poems that express their love for them. It is truly a wonderful feeling to know that someone cares enough about us to take the time to share that love in a special way.

We all need to know that someone loves us. It's reassuring to know there is someone who loves us-unconditionally! God. As the Apostle John stated in 1 John 4:8 and again in verse 16, "God is love".

God demonstrated his love for us when he gave his only Son, "that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life." John 3:16

God's love is unconditional. He loves us no matter what, even when we have exhibited inappropriate behavior or hurt others by that behavior. God remains loyal to us.

How about your love for others? Do you only love those who love you back? Do you only show your love when someone compliments you or praises you and ignore them or treat them in an unkind way when they don't? Do you show less love to those who don't share your same values?

Is it possible that you feel unloved yourself, making it difficult for you to reach out in love to those around you? Knowing about God's love can change that. If we are secure in his love for us, we will find it so much easier to reach out in love to others. This will affect our relationships in a very positive way.

So on this Valentine's Day and every day of your life, share the love that God has for you with others close to you and with those who might never have learned about God's unconditional love for all of humankind.

Have you signed up for Confirmation Class yet? We would love all youth ages 11-13 (and older if you haven't already been confirmed) to join us for Confirmation classes starting Sunday March 19th at 3pm. Please email or call Johanna at the church office or see the sign up in the folder on the volunteer desk.

Normal Sunday School and choir practice today. Hope to see many of you at the leadership retreat following at 11:15.

Spread some love this week,
Ms. Johanna

Announcements

PUMC Officers Meeting Today!: There will be a meeting of all officers of the church in Parsons Hall today beginning at 11:15 a.m. A light lunch will be served. Please plan to attend as we need everyone's input in planning for 2017.

Circle Meetings: Susanna Circle will be meeting on Tuesday, February 21, at 10:30 a.m. in Parsons Hall. Prior to the official meeting, a special installation of UMW officers will take place. Following the installation, Joyce Flood will open the meeting with devotions and lead the women in the annual pledge service for mission moments. The program will consist of making greeting cards for shut-ins. The ladies are asked to bring a bag lunch; dessert will be provided.

The women of Ruth Circle will meet on Wednesday, February 22, at 7:00 p.m. in the Circle Room. Mary Ann Jackopin will offer devotions. Sue Mixer will provide the pledge service, and then there will be an informal opportunity to get better acquainted with each other. We may know each other by name and face, but there are always vital interesting details of our lives that help us form stronger bonds of friendship. Do come and join us for this special time of fellowship. Sue Mixer and Chris Baxter will provide refreshments.

Food Pantry

Item of the Week

This week we are asking for donations of 14-16 oz. cans of vegetables. Thank you for your continued support of this ministry.

Media Matters: This morning's radio broadcast is sponsored by Larry & MaryAnn VanDerHorst in celebration of Larry's birthday.

Lenten Study: Our Lenten Study will begin on Sunday, March 5th from 11:30 - 1:00 in the Chapel. A light lunch will be served. We will study the book Who Is This Man?: The Unpredictable impact of the inescapable Jesus, by John Ortberg. The books are available to purchase for $13.00.

Scholarship Opportunity: Upon Rev. Kalb's retirement, PUMC honored Roberta with a scholarship in her name to be awarded to a member of PUMC pursuing a degree in education. Applications are available on the website, or by emailing the church office, and hard copies are available at the Volunteer Desk. The deadline for submission is April 1st. The scholarship will be awarded on Graduation Sunday.

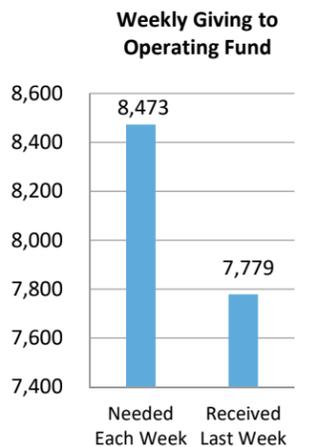

Save and Donate Those Printer Cartridges: A reminder to all that we have a box just beneath the literature table near the elevator outside our circle room that is designated for depositing used computer printer cartridges. These are regularly collected and taken to Staples where a "reward" of $2.00 per cartridges is credited to the church's account. PUMC can "earn" a total of $40.00 per month if we turn in 20 cartridges in each month's time period. That helps to pay for necessary supplies such as printer paper and other office needs. Thanks for thinking of PUMC in this way.

*Call to Worship

Leader: John Wesley said we should all be moving toward perfection.

People: Perfection is difficult to reach, especially in a world that accepts mediocrity as the norm.

Leader: Jesus asks us to be perfect just as our heavenly Father is perfect.

People: We may never reach perfection in the eyes of the world, but we can strive for perfection in the eyes of God.

Leader: What we do, what we say, and how we treat our fellow human beings are indicators in our search for perfection.

People: John Wesley said we should all be moving toward perfection. All we can do is try! May we be conscious of our actions and careful with our words, so that a glimpse of perfection may be seen in us. Amen.
