Dear Friends and Friends I have not met yet,

Loving our enemies takes work! We all have people with whom we do not get along so well. Maybe some of us even have true enemies, but I hope not! In Eugene Peterson's "The Message" Chapter 5 verses 43 and following read, "You're familiar with the old written law, 'Love your friend,' and its unwritten companion. 'Hate your enemy.' I'm challenging that. I'm telling you to love your enemies. Let them bring out the best in you, not the worst. When someone gives you a hard time, respond with the energies of prayer, for then you are working out of your true selves, your God-created selves."

It is not easy, but I do believe it is worth it. Valentine's Day was just two days ago and every heart in the world was filled with chocolates, cut out of doilies, placed among a dozen roses, and delivered to decorated shoe boxes. I think it is time to work on our own hearts and fill them with God's love, cut out the hurt, place them in the hands of Jesus, and deliver them to the world. Bypass the shoe boxes and all the frills, we need to get down to the God's work, the work of sincerely loving all. Verse 48 in The Message states, "In a word, what I'm saying is, Grow up. You're kingdom subjects. Now live like it. Live out; your God-created identity. Live generously and graciously toward others, the way God lives toward you."

Blessings, PJ

*Call to Worship

Leader: An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth. That is the way of the world.

People: But it is not the way of Christ.

Leader: Jesus challenges us to be better than we think we should be.

People: He asks us to do more than we might want to do.

Leader: He wants us to love our friends and families.

People: And he wants us to love our enemies!

Leader: It is not easy to follow the ways of Jesus.

People: But if we do, the world will be a better place for all.

Pastoral Prayer & The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory for ever. Amen.
