Dear Friends and Friends I have not yet met,

Next week the confirmation class will be taking the vows of membership here at Painesville United Methodist Church. No matter what happens this week in the special General Conference, our focus will totally be on the twelve young people who have spent many hours learning about their heritage, their faith, their church, and their role in it.

I have been so impressed with this group of youth and their desire to learn. They were given study Bibles on the first day of class and each week they selected verses that spoke to them. These verses were important, powerful, and some of them will be a part of the church-wide Lenten Devotional booklet.

The class will be participating in both services next week in a variety of ways and then we will celebrate their confirmation in a reception after each service. I hope you will plan to come and join us in welcoming our newest members.

And speaking of new members, there will be a new membership class for adults on March 24th following the Lenten Book Study. The class will be from 1:30-3:30 that afternoon. If you have any interest in being a member or would like to learn more about PUMC, please contact the church office and register for the class.

There is a new day dawning at the Painesville United Methodist Church and I hope you want to be a part of it!

Blessings, PJ

Children's Time

*Call to Worship

Leader: O God, who in Christ calls us to conform our lives to your will, we acknowledge our failure to heed this summons.

People: Time and again, even though mindful of his ways, we have not walked in Christ's steps.

Leader: We knew of his readiness to help those who could not help him, yet we have restricted our help to those who can help us.

People: We knew of his willingness to give to those who could not give to him, yet we have given only to those who can give to us.

Leader: We knew of his quickness to forgive his enemies, yet we have been slow to forgive even our friends.

People: Forgive us, dear Lord, for our betrayal of your summons. Draw us nearer to yourself, that we might find the desire to discern your will and the strength to do it. Amen.

(Tilson and Cole, 1991)

The Lord's Prayer

"Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on Earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory for ever. Amen."
