"The Journey: What We Learn Along the Way"

Pastor
Jan Yandell

Dear Friends and Friends I have not yet met,

Today we welcome Janet Lahr Lewis who has been a missionary with the Board of Global Ministry for many years in the Middle East and now works as an advocate in Washington, DC. Mission work in any place is challenging and rewarding. I am grateful to those who are called by Jesus to follow him into ministry in a wide variety of places.

Last week we talked about the first disciples Jesus called and today we lift up the first acts of ministry recorded in the Gospel of Mark. Jesus was teaching in the synagogue in Capernaum and everyone was amazed that he taught with such authority. In the midst of the crowd was a man with an unclean spirit and Jesus rebuked the spirit and it came out of the man. Thus Jesus began his ministry with both word and action. Teaching and healing all on the same day in the same place.

John Wesley also spoke of the importance of both words and actions and called us to follow the example of Jesus in our everyday lives. Speaking the good news and performing acts of mercy together proves to others that we mean what we say. Our words are backed up by our works.

We are all missionaries on a journey for Jesus and when we hear of his teachings and work, we too, are called to follow.

Blessings, PJ
